FOURTH UMPIRE

Markets opened flat and again moved in the same tight range as of previous session with volatile movements but finally managed to close on a flat note with positive bias. Nifty future found strong support around 8540 and headed towards 8600 where it faced strong resistance. Last two sessions' closing indicates that markets are gaining strength and may surpass the resistance zone of 8600-8650 in the coming session. Any closing below 8540 may negate the above view.
